

OUTLOOKS ON PEST MANAGEMENT

Terms and Conditions of Acceptance for Publication

Articles are accepted for publication by Research Information Ltd. ("RIL") in Outlooks on Pest Management subject to the following terms and conditions and in signing this document the author is agreeing with these terms.

Title of article:

The author warrants that:

1. The text of the article is not currently being considered for publication elsewhere, nor has it previously been published.
2. The article does not infringe any copyright and that written evidence of permission to use copyright material, including illustrations and interviews, has been obtained.
3. The use of any material supplied to the author under licence from a third party (e.g. photographs) complies with the terms of that licence.
4. All statements in the article purporting to be facts are to the best of the author's knowledge and belief true.
5. The article does not contain any defamatory or otherwise actionable material.

Processing of the article

1. The editor may arrange for the article to be reviewed by independent referees and the author may be asked by the editor to revise the article on the basis of the referees' comments.
2. The author grants to the editor unlimited right in his sole discretion to amend, edit, add to or delete from the text of the article.
3. The author agrees to cooperate with the revision and editing policy outlined above.
4. RIL undertakes to send proofs of the final version of the article to the author for approval prior to publication (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

Publication of the article

The author grants to RIL the right to publish the article throughout the world in printed and electronic forms, including the worldwide web.

Following publication of the article

1. The author agrees not to reproduce, or licence others to reproduce, the complete text of the article as published in Outlooks on Pest Management (including typographic layout) without first obtaining written permission from RIL.
2. RIL confirms that it has no objection to the author reproducing portions of the article elsewhere after the article has been published in Outlooks on Pest Management (with the exception of those portions for which the author may be required to seek permission from a third party). Any reproduction must be accompanied by an acknowledgement in the form: (original citation) – Reproduced by permission of Research Information Ltd. (Website: www.pestoutlook.com).
